

New South Wales Regional Committee

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

These courses aim to assist trainees prepare to sit the Primary Examination

PRIMARY (Part 1) COURSES

Part 0 – An Induction to Anaesthesia

The aim of this course is to provide support for Registrars joining the College training program. Topics covered in this include some introductory background to the function of the College, professionalism, how to get help if required, as well as educational aspects relating to study skills and approach to exams. A number of Supervisors of Training and Heads of Department will be in attendance.

A Saturday afternoon program held toward the end of each year. Only open to New South Wales trainees

Venue: Kerry Packer Education Centre, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney

Primary Refresher Course In Anaesthesia

This full time course is run largely on a seminar-tutorial basis with short answer questions and trial vivas, commencing at 8.00am and continuing until approximately 5.30pm. The first week covers mainly Physiology topics and the second week Pharmacology topics.

Held twice each year - May and October

Venue: Kerry Packer Education Centre, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney

FINAL (Part II) COURSES

These courses aim to assist trainees prepare to sit the Final Examination

Part II Refresher Course In Anaesthesia

This full time course (8.30am – 5.30pm) includes seminars, panel sessions and demonstrations, lectures and a series of informal tutorials and trial exam questions. The course concludes on the final day with ‘hands on’ anatomy demonstrations on upper limb, lower limb, spine, eyes and limb.

Held once a year - February

Venue: Kerry Packer Education Centre, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney

Anatomy Demonstrations to be conducted in the Department of Anatomy & Histology, University of Sydney

ANZCA Part II Short Course at Westmead Hospital

This full time course is for registrars sitting the 2009 FANZCA examination only. Emphasis is placed upon practical interactive teaching, examination technique, practice with SAQs and Vivas.

Held once a year – June

Venue: Westmead Hospital, Sydney

Contact: Ms Barbara Collins

(02) 9845 – 6447

Final Trial Vivas

A series of Trial Vivas held for Registrars sitting the next Final Examination.

Held twice each year. Only open for New South Wales trainees

Evening sessions commencing at 6.30pm

Venue: Rotated through Sydney metropolitan teaching hospitals